Go! Go! Gorillo are the King Kongs of Rock'n'Roll! They blend filthy Rock'n'Roll, primitive Blues and Tarantino-infused Garage-Surf-Trash into their very own Brutal Boogie. Drummer King Kong Kolic and bassplayer Marcus "Maul" Ullmann lay the rhythmic foundation for Rocco "The Electric Beast" Carletto's primitive guitar riffs and Martin "The Three Legged Hurricane" Opitz' hypnotic howl.

Since they first hit the stage at the Shelter in Vienna on April 14, 2011 – an pivotal moment that Ash My Love and Morbidelli Brothers guitarist Sheriff Melone described with the words: "It was like the awakening of a monster!" – Go! Go! Gorillo has toured across Central and Southern Europe.

In late 2019 the four-piece unleashed it's second album "Taking Care Of Monkey Business" to the public. The 9-track masterpiece gained the band radio airplay in Germany, Austria and Switzerland and TV appearances in their home country.

"Taking Care Of Monkey Business" is as loud, dirty and spectacular as any Go! Go! Gorillo live show and leaves you behind longing for more. Now get in the ring for some party, booze and lots of ... what?! Go! Go! Go!

Go! Go! Gorillo are

Martin "The Three Legged Hurricane" Opitz – vocals
